

THE DISCOVERY

Of Mans return to his first Estate, by the Operation of the power of God in the Great work of Regeneration.

AND

A Word to the Back slider, who hath tasted of the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come, And hath turned from the Grace of God, into wantonness, And gone back into spiritual Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord is crucified.

ALSO

*A Discovery of mystery Babylon, and her Merchants.
And a Word to the hard hearted unbelieving Jews, Professors, who profess Christ in words, but stumble at his Light, in their Consciences, to their own destruction.*

WITH

A Word to all Saints, who have set their faces towards Sion, to seek the Lord their God, and to those that are waiting therein, to worship him in Spirit and Truth.

AND

A Word of Consolation, unto the Child of Light; that yet is in darkness, being deeply afflicted, and wounded in Spirit; through ignorance of salvation in the New Covenant, in Christ Iesus the Light.

By the Spirit of the Lord, written by one, whom the people of this VWorld, calls A Quaker, whose name in the flesh is William Denshury; but hath a new name, the world knows not, written in the Book of Life.

All Men and Women, Behold, and see in what Estate you were created.

he him, male and female created he them.

And the Lord God took the man & put him in the Gen. 2.
Garden of Eden to dress, and keep it; and the Lord 15, 16, 17.
God commanded the man, saying of every tree in the Garden thou mayest freely eat, but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it, for in the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die the death.

The Serpent was more subtile then any beast of Gen. 3, to the Field, which the Lord God had made, he said 16.

unto the woman, ye shall not surely dye, for God doth say that in the day you eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as God knowing good and evil.

And when the woman saw the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant unto the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also to her husband Adam, and he did eat.

And

And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed figleaves together, and made them aprons.

And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the coole of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord among the trees of the garden: and the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, where art thou?

And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and was affraid, and because I was naked, I hid my self. And he said, who told thee that thou wast naked? hast thou eaten of the tree whereoff I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? and the man said, the woman, who thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

And the Lord God said unto the woman, what is this that thou hast done? the woman said the Serpent beguiled me and I did eat.

And the Lord God said unto the Serpent, because thou hast done this thou art cursed above all cattell, and above every beast of the field, upon thy belly shalt thou goe, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

And I will put enmity betwixt thee and the woman, and between thy seed, and her seed, it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

And the Lord God said, Behold this man is become as one of us to know good and evil, and now lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat and live for ever, therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken, and he drove out the divination of his own brain, a riddle to his own heart, and while he speaks to others, himself is a call-a-vay.

Every man and woman in particular, deal justly with your hearts, and see where your hearts are, and what they delight in, for in some of these created objects you delight in and feed upon, if you cannot witness your change by the eternal & powerful Word of Truth; for into the earth you are driven from the presence of God, and these are the fruits which spring forth of the earth which is in your hearts, self-love, pride, covetousness, anger revenge, hastiness, frowardness, back-biting, hard heartedness, cruelty and oppression, lust and uncleanness, drunkenness, impatience and unbelief, and you are fenced out from coming to the tree of life with Cherubims and the flaming sword, which turns every way to keep the tree of life. So every one see what you can witness of your returne again unto God from whence you are separated by the disobedience and evill of your hearts, and see what is the ground of the hope of your callings, and, by what power you are acted in your obedience unto God whether by the power of the first Adam or by the power of the second, for if thou upon the convincement of the evil of thy wayes, do not wait in the light, which is, in thy conscience, that convinceth thee of the evil of thy doings, for power from the Lord to guide thee forth of the evil, which the light discovers, which would guide thee into the Kingdome of God; but thou runest out into the wisdom of the first Adam.

 enlightens the conscience, and condemns sin in the flesh, for every one would ascend with Christ to be partakers of the life and glory with him but he becomes a stumbling stone to be baptized with him into his sufferings and death, to descend with him into hell, and this thou must witness before ever thou come to sit with him in heavreign with him, who suffer with him, and they that are dead with him shall live with him, it is the dead that hears the voice of the Son of God,

 Law

Law fulfilled in them, and others are waiting in the faith patiently; following the Lord dayly through the Cross, until the Law be fulfilled. But thou art departed from the counsel of the Lord thy God, and caused his name to be evil spoken of, and hast made the hearts of his people sad, as they did that the Apostle speaks of, For many walk of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is their shame, who mind earthly things. These Scriptures are fulfilled in thee, which the Apostle mentions, And while they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption, for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought into bondage, for if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again intangled therein and overcome, the latter end of them is worse with them than the beginning, for it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, then after they have known it, to turn from the Holy Commandment delivered unto them, but it is happened unto them according to the true Proverb, the Dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the Sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire, and thou mayest read what will be manifest to thee from the Lord.

He that despised Moses Law died without mercy, how much sorer punishment suppose ye shalt thou be thought worthy of, who hast trodden under foot the Son of God, and hast counted the blood of the Covenant wherewith thou wast sanctified an unholy thing, and hast done despite unto the Spirit of Grace; and we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongs unto me, I will recompence saith the Lord: it is a fearfull thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

The Discovery of Mystery-Babylon.

To all enslaved Captives in Babylons Kingdome, who are made drunk with the wine of the wrath of her fornications, and bewitched through the multitude of her inchant-ments. Rev. 18. 3

Friends, Babylon is within you, the mother of harlots is within you, and she bewitches you through the abundance of her sorceries; and the beast is within you that ariseth out of the bottomless pit of the deceived heart, which is deceitful & desperately wicked; & the beast which all the world wanders after, is your wills, that makes war against the lamb of God in you, which is the light that makes manifest the evil of your hearts, and your wisdom is the great Whore that sits upon the beast, that ariseth out of the bottomless pit of the deceitful heart, and she finds out many deceitful inventions to preserve the beastly will alive, having a golden Cup in her hand, full of the abominations of the earth, and this golden cup is your outward professions, glorious comprehensions and conceivements of God and Christ, imitating what the Saints did impower, according as they were moved by the operation of the Spirit of the most high God; and you imitate the Saints practice by your wis-dome.

There

There is nothing but confusion in the Kingdome of Babylon; so come you to be divided into so many particular forms, as Presbyterians, Independants, Anabaptists, and divers others that are in outward worships painted over with glorious words, and yet you whose wills guide you, are painted Beasts, bewitched with the Mother of Harlots, notwithstanding all your outward professions and glorious observations, they are but the golden cup, and within you are full of the abominations of the earth, as self-love, covetousness, lust, and uncleanness, haste-ness, frowardness, backbiting, slandering, hardheartedness, cruelty, and oppression, grinding the faces of the poor, impatience and unbelief, and the fear of the Lord is not before your eyes, and thus you lie enslaved captives in the Kingdome of Babylon, refreshing your hearts in the creature enjoyments, which will perish, some in father and mother, some in wife and children, some in house and Land, some in money and gold, some in self-wisdom, delighting in themselves, some in honour and preferment in this world, and when there is enjoyment of these visible creatures, then there is content, and when they are taken away there is trouble, the minde always plodding, contriving, and acting every way to get of the creatures what the heart lusts after, and he that gets the most is the highest exalted, so every one is exalted above another, and there is nothing but tyranny, cruelty, and oppression among you, your sons and daughters of Babylon; And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and

The Merchants of Babylon are your Teachers; who draw you from your guide, which is the pure light of Christ in you, to seek the Kingdom of God in observations without you, contrary to the mind of Christ, the Kingdom of God comes not with observations, neither shall they say, lo here, or lo there, for behold the Kingdom of God is within you.

But these your Merchants have no Scripture for their Merchandize, which they sell to you enslaved captives for so many hundreds in the year, and is paid in the Nation, or elsewhere: for these observations they tell you, you must observe, or else you cannot come to the Kingdom of Heaven, though they are contrary to the Scripture, as are practised by them; there is no Scripture that witnesseth their call to the Ministry by humane wisdom; Not many great, not many noble, not many wise, after the flesh. 1 Cor. 1. 26.

There is no Scripture that any that Jesus Christ sent forth, made a Bargain with the people for so much a year, as these do that profess themselves to be sent of Christ.

This is the call of the Ministers of Christ, Gal. 1. 11, Paul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, neither of man, nor by man but by the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

I send you forth, (saith Jesus Christ) as Lambs among Wolves, into what Town or City ye enter, enquire who is worthy, and if they receive you, there abide, eating such things as is set before you, the labourer is worthy of his meat, freely ye have received, freely minister. Mat. 10. 16
Mat. 10.
10. ver. 8.

Those whom Jesus Christ commits the Word of eternal life unto, and calls them forth to declare it unto others, the love of Jesus Christ, which is sealed up to their souls through his own blood, constrains them to give up themselves to death, in witnessing forth the eternal life they enjoy in Christ, as it was, it is; the love of Christ constraineth me to preach the Gospel, saith Paul; But these your Merchants are they which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness,

And as there is no Scripture for their call to the Ministry by their humane learning, nor making Bargains with the people for so much in the year; so there is no Scripture for these observations they call the Ordinances of God, as they are practised by them.

There is no Scripture that Christ or any that he sent forth, did take a child, and sprinkled water on its face, and said in so doing they baptized it into the Church of Christ.

Suffer little Children to come unto me, saith Christ, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God: for whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little Child, shall not enter therein, he sets the child as a type and a figure, to shew forth to every one, that they must become as a little child depending upon the will of God, before they enter into the Kingdom of God: he took them up in his arms, and put his hands on them, & blessed them, but that he sprinkled water on their faces, and said, He baptized them into his Church, there is no such Scripture

Another

Another observation your Teachers tell you you must observe, is hearing these studied Sermons, in taking a part of Scripture, and adding to it their wisdom, calls it the word of God, which is contrary to the Scripture; but they say, They have Christ for an example.

There was delivered unto him the book of the Prophet Isaiah, and when he had opened the book, he found where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel unto the poor, he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of the sight of the blind, and to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord: and he closed the book and sat down: and he began to say unto them, This day is the Scripture fulfilled in your ears: and all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words that proceeded out of his mouth; he was the substance of the prophecy which was then fulfilled in him.

This is no ground for any to take the Saints words, and add to it their wisdom, and call that the word of God.

The Prophet that hath a Dream, let him tell a Dream: he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord. is not my word like a fire, and like a hammer? saith the Lord, that breaks the Rocks in peices, All to whom the word of the Lord is committed, can witness it to be as a fire within them, and as a hammer that breaketh the rocks in peices, subjecting all in the heart under the power of it self, so it alone rules rules and guides him that he is what he speaks, that if he had never seen any thing that the Saints hath declared without him, he had known what is manifest in him: and he to whom the word is thus made manifest is a true Minister of Christ, who is called to speak the word faithfully.

Isa. 56. 11 But these that call themselves your Teachers, Jer. 9. 30. and makes bargains with you for so much in the Mic. 5. 11 year, they never witnessed the word of the Lord Jer. 23. 30. in them, as a fire, and like a hammer that breaketh the Rocks in peices, so they never had any thing to have spoken of the Lord; but as they have stolln it from the testimony of the Saints, so they speak a divination of their own brain, a riddle to their own hearts; and whilst they speak to others, themselves are cast away.

Cor. 9. 27. And the Lord testifies against them, Behold I am the Prophets saith the Lord, that steals my word every one from his neighbour.

Behold I am against the Prophets, saith the Lord, that use their tongue and say, He saith.

Behold I am against them that Prophecy false dreams, saith the Lord, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lyes and by their lightness, yet I sent them not nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit the people at all saith the Lord: and this fruit is made manifest of the ministry that hath been in England.

Another Observation your Teachers tell you to observe which is contrary to Scripture, as it is practised by them in singing of Davids Psalms in Metre, taking Davids words, who was a man after Gods own heart, and putting words into the the mouthes of poor ignorant people to sing that which they never knew, and so causes them to blaspheme the name of God, saying; Let us sing in the praise and glory of God, as, O Lord I am not puffed in mine own mind. I have no scornfull eye. I do not exercise my self in things that be too high for me. when they never knew any change wrought in their minds, and so causeth the people to lye. And causing them to sing Davids prayers, as, *O Lord rebuke me not in thy wrath, neither chaste me in thy hot displeasure for thine arrows stick fast in me, & thy hand presseth me sore, for my iniquities are gone over my head, as an heavy burden. they are too heavy for me to bear; my wounds stink and are corrupt, because of my foolishness; I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly, I go mourning all the day long: and may be none of you in all that place can witness the condition, and so blasphemes the Name of God, who will be worshipped in spirit and in truth, and this is the rule given out from him, *If any be afflicted let him say, if any be merry let him sing Psalms: and there is none merry but the ransomed of the Lord, who returnes to Sion with joy and singing, and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads, and they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and fighting flies away.

Psal. 131.

7.

All people may search the Scriptures, and see how you have been deceived by your Teachers, who have caused you to seek your lost God in carnal and dead observations, which they have not any Scripture for; all cease from them; for the Lord complains of them, The leaders of my people people causeth them to erre, saith the Lord of hosts; and now are these Scriptures fulfilled in these men, which the Apostle prophesied of.

This know also, that in the last dayes perilous times shall come, for men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy: all people see, are not your Teachers to self-lovers; before they come at you, they must know what they must have: covetous, griping for much; and if you will not give them so much as they can have in another place, they will not come at you: here is self-love and covetousness manifested; without natural affection, Truce-breakers, false Accusers, Traytors, heady, high-minded, Lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God, having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; from such the Apostle exhorts to turn away. All people behold and see all these Scriptures are fulfilled in your Teachers, they speak against pride, and live in it: against covetousness, and live in it; they teach by their words to be natural affectionated one towards another, and they walk contrary, causing poor people to pay, to maintain them in pride and high ranks in the earth, who can scarce get bread for their bellies, and cloaths for their backs; yet they force them to pay to them, being voyd of all natural affections: and they are Truce-breakers, breaking all Bonds and Covenants, if they can get more money in another place. Thus they shew forth to all the World, that they are lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God, and have a form of godliness in words, but deny the power thereof: from such turn away; for of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women, laden with sin and divers lusts; these Scriptures are fulfilled in your Teachers, every one hath his particular house to creep into, where none must come but themselves, or whom they please, which is contrary to the practice of Christ, or any that he sent forth: they went through the Countries, Towns, Cities, Villages, according as they were guided by the Spirit of God, to declare what he gave them to speak; and your Teachers lead silly women captive, laden with sin, and led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth; do not they tell you to look for Christs coming in such observations as they set up, which is nothing but the invention of their brains, for Christ tells you, The Kingdome of God comes not with observations, but is within you. But many of them that deny, that the light in your conscience, which makes manifest the evil of your hearts, is the Kingdome of God, calling it the light of a corrupt conscience, so shuts the Kingdome of heaven against men, and will neither enter in themselves to be guided by the pure light of the Kingdome of Christ within them, nor suffer them that are entering in, to enter, as the Scribes and Pharisees did: now as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so do these men resist the truth, men of corrupt minds, reprobates concerning the faith, but they shall proceed no farther, for their folly

Rev. 18. 11. folly shall be made manifest to all men, as theirs also was, and no man shall buy their Merchandize any more.

All you enslaved captives in the kingdome of Babylon, why will you lay out your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfies not? hearken diligently unto Jesus Christ, the light that lets you see the evil of your hearts, to be guided by it, and you shall eat that which is good, encline your ears, saith Christ, and come unto me; hear, and your souls shall live, Isa. 55. 3. and I will make an everlasting covenant with you even the sure mercies of David: mind the call of a powerfull and tender Father in the Lord Jesus, Rev. 18. 4. who calls, Come forth of Babylon my people, and 2. Cor. 6. touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you, and 17. 18. will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord God Almighty. Friends, prize your times, slight not the day of the Lords mercy, for he waits to be gracious and saith, Isa. 38. 19. I stretch forth my arms all the day long to a back- Ma. 65. 2. slider & gainsaying people. Every one, mind your Jer. 3. 12. conditions, deal justly with your own hearts, see Hof. 14. 4. *what your hearts hath fellowship with, and guide Mica. 6. 8. your minds, for the Kingdom of Christ is within Mal. 6. 21. you, it is not in observations, as your teacher tells Luke 17. 21. you; for they deceive you, therefore Christ for- Ro. 8. 14. warned us for looking forth at those which 3 Ioh. 6. would come in the latter days, that would say, 26. Mar. 13. Loe here is Christ, loe there is Christ, as it is in Mar. 24. *these our days, some say, Lo here is Christ in the 32. 36. Presbyterian practise; the Independents say, He is there, and the Anabaptists say, Lo he is here.

But friends mind what Christ saith unto you, Believe them not, look not forth, the Kingdome of Christ is not in any of those, nor in any other outward observations, but (be awarned) the Kingdome of Christ is in you, and that is the light that lets you see the evil of your hearts: and Christ compares it to a grain of Mustard-seed, the least of all seeds, and it grows up above all other hearbs, and becomes a tree that the fowls of the aire lodges therein; and he compares it to a little leaven, that a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, and it leavened the whole lump. These are earthly parables and figures, which Christ lays down, speaking to the earthly and carnal heart of man, that he may read his condition within. Therefore despise not the day of small things, but mind the counsel of the Lord Jesus, the little light that shines in thy dark heart, look upon the figures, the parables; the little leaven which is hid in three measurs of meal, it changes the whole lump into the nature of it self: so the little light that shines in thy dark heart, is the powerful word of faith, which was in the beginning, by which all things were created, and and without him was nothing made, this word is life, and the life is the light of men, and light shines in darkness, and the darkness compre hendes it not: this light is the word of faith the Apostle exhorted to take heed unto, Say not in thy heart who shall ascend up to Heaven to fetch Christ down? or down into the deep to fetch him up? the word is nigh thee, in thy heart, and in thy mouth, and this is the word of faith which we preach, the unction of the holy one given of the Father, whereby we need not to teach one another, but as the anointing teacheth us, which is truth and no lye, which is the sure word of prophesie, whereunto ye do well so take heed as unto a light shining in a dark place, untill the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts.

All people return within, give up your selves freely to be guided by that light, that discovers to you the evil of your hearts, and none be discouraged, because you see an evil heart, but prize the love of God that discovers it to you, and whatever the light makes manifest to you to be evill: wait on the Lord for power, and he will give thee power to obey, and in being faithfull in a little, more will be communicated from the Lord, so will the righteous Law be set up in your hearts, that will cry through your earthly and carnal hearts for righteousness and judgement, and so will bring you to an account for every idle word, and all deeds done in the body. Look up unto the Lord against whom you have sinned, and he will arm you with power to what he layes upon you, with patience to undergo his will, untill all the powers of the earth in you be furnished, and slain under his righteous Judgements; then will Judgement be brought forth unto victory, that you can no longer live without the loving kindness of your Father in Christ Jesus.

Now is the parable fulfilled, the little grain of mustard-seed grown up above all herbs, and the little leaven hath leavened the whole lump, and the prodigal starved for ever, if his father receive him not freely into his house. Then

Oh thou enslaved soul under the power of Babylon in thee, come forth, mind the light in thee, which is the sure Word of Prophecie, whereunto you do well to take heed, as unto a light shining in a dark place, untill the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: stand not out against this secret counsel of Christ in you, lest you perish in your gain sayings; for if his anger be kindled a little, blessed are all they that trust in him. All give up, give up freely to be guided by the counsel of the Lord the light in you, believing in his power that is present with the light, he will lead you daily through the Cross, in the straight way of his sufferings and death, where the old man will be put off with his deeds, and so you shall have right to the Tree of life, and shall enter with him through the Gates into the

1 Cor. 1.

And as they that are guided by the Beast (which is Anti-christ) speak of the truth, a riddle to their own hearts, not knowing the power and life of what they speak, adding to the Word of the Lord, and the plagues and curse of God will be added unto them. But thou that art guided by the Lamb Jesus Christ, thou knowest when the Word of the Lord is committed to thee: If any have my Word, saith the Lord, let him speak my Word faithfully: is not my Word like a fire: saith the Lord, and like a hammer that breaketh the rocks in pieces: Thou canst witness the Word of the Lord, to be as a fire, and as a hammer to break the rocks in pieces in thee, and bring down all in thee in subjection to its self, and it alone rules in thee: and thou that canst witness the Word of the Lord thus manifest in thee, thou

A word of Consolation, unto the Child of Light; that yet sits in darkness, being deeply afflicted, and wounded in Spirit; through ignorance of salvation in the New Covenant, in Christ Iesus the Light.

Deare Child

OF the birth of the Imortal seed which cries over all the world, & beyond all the pleasure, pomp and vanity therein, for the injoyment of the light & countenance of God fear thou not; neither be thou discouraged, because of the violent assaults of the enemy, who seeks to draw thee into the carnal reasonings of thy spirit, and in it to kindle a fire to thy self, and cause thee to walk in the light of the sparks that thou hast kindled, and this hast thou at the hand of the Lord, in thy going from his counsel, thou lyeest down in sorrow, few know thy great distress, but to the Lord it is known and them that hath walked in the same paths.

Ob

Oh thou deare beloved Babe who lies in the deep sence of the working of the evil one in thy mind and many times is ready to say, never was any like unto me, neither any sorrow like unto my sorrow, and in this languishing despairing mournings of thy soul, all things made bitter to thee as the waters of Marah; thou art thou driven from all comfort, as a child without a father, and a desolate widdow without a husband, and as a stranger that no eye pittieeth, in thy apprehension, sometimes saying in thy heart, in the heat of the temptation, and the fire, that thou hast kindled: Oh, that I had been any creature but what I am, or if it were the will of the Lord, that he would shorten my days, that I might not be any longer on earth, to sin against him, for in thy own sence and feeling thou walking in the sparks thou hast kindled in carnal reasonings thou deservedst not any thing but wrath, horror, misery and distress on every side, and great languishings that thy days were shortened, secretly crying out in thy heart, Oh that I were alone in the wilderness or in any cave or den in the Earth, that I might never see nor beare any of the sons of men any more, but in the secret retiredness even roar and mourn out my days until I dye.

Oh thou royal child of the birth of the morning ning of the pure eternal day of the God of Israel, hearken no longer to the enemy, who saith there hath none travelled where thou art, nor none drunk of the cup that thou art drinking, he is a lyer who goes about to destroy thy precious soul, in the word of the Lord God I declare unto thee, I drunk the same cup with my faithful freinds who is born of the royal seed, every one in their measures travelled in the same path, and hath indured the same temptations, and walked in the light of the same sparks, and laid down in sorrow in the sense of the same misery as thou mournest under this day; no longer lend an ear to the enemy and the thoughts of thy heart, Arise arise in the light of the Covenant, stay thy heart; and the Lord he will throw down the enemy of thy peace, destroy the carnal reasonings of thy minde, put out the fire that thou hast kindled, and he will deliver thee forth of the horrible pit, and set thy feet upon the rock of ages, and thou shalt tread down the enemies of thy soul in the sensible feeling of the love of the Father, who will manifest himself to be a Father, to the Fatherless in thee, and a husband to the mournful widow, and a comfort to the immortal babe that mourns in thee, in the uprightness of thy heart to do the will of the living God, so in the power of his might stay thy heart, and tread upon all doubts feares disparing thoughts, questionings, reasonings, musings, imaginations, and consultings, arise over them all in the light of Christ, he will lead thee into the banqueting house of the pleasure of our God where thou shalt sit down with me, and all the redeemed of my father, who are borne of the immortal seed, I have past through great tribulations, & have washed our Garments, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb, therefore do we now stand before the throne of God, praising him day & night in his holy Temple, And this shall be the portion of thy cup, if thou diligently hearken to the counsel of the Lord, which calls thee to trust in him, he will embrace thee in the armes of his love, and thou shalt praise his name for ever.

God Almighty in his light and life raise up thy soul, and establish thy heart in his counsel, stedfastly to wait his power to lead thee in the cross out of all unbelief, and cause thee to lye down at rest in obedience to his will where thou shalt drink the cup of salvation for ever.
